

Speakers (+ short appellations)	Plenary Meeting: Topics	Approx. Duration
John Guillebaud Emeritus Prof UCL of Family Planning and SRHR, Sexual & Reproductive Health and Rights	Introduction: finite planet, the massiveness of the human enterprise with unremitting resource consumption and pollution. The Impossible Hamster and the EcoTC song, The Promise	5 minutes + 5 mins video
Ghillian Prance Emeritus Prof, Science Director of the Eden Project, past Kew Director when Eco TC was interred With Susan Hampshire	The Eco-Timecapsule's Apology concept and its contents: artefacts & children's writing	5 minutes
Jonathon Porritt Author & campaigner and former Director of Friends of the Earth	Listing the existential challenges of the biodiversity and climate emergencies	5
Chris Rapley Professor of Climate Science at UCL and past Director of the Science Museum	The climate emergency: why so little action? when needs to be now and at scale	5
John Guillebaud (Originator of the Apology to Future Eco-timecapsule Project)	The I=PAT equation, all 3 factors crucial, like a 3-legged stool - including the 6 Rs and the much neglected 'upstream' Population-factor.	15
Florence Blondel [on line] Ugandan Journalist, passionate activist focussed on sustainable population, the environment and the rights of women and girls.	Why 'Westerners' who downplay or are scared to promote voluntary family planning are not speaking for us in the LDCs	5
Pip Hayes Exeter GP and Campaigner	Small family ethics : which must mean replacement fertility ≤ 2 (or below)	5
Joanna Sharples Kevin Reid Former Directors of Ness Gardens, Wirral Naomi Graham of Wirral Env Network www.wirralenvironmentalnetwork.org.uk Ane Zabaleta Education Manager, BGCI	Bringing in Ness Gardens, the Wirral Env Network (WEN); & re abroad, including the Botanic Gardens Conservation International	10
Young People, <35, interactively, including some present in 1994 Claire Howard Youth Program Co-ordinator, KEW	Looking back to the Warning and Apology in 1994 and forward, our Promise, to 2044.	5
John Guillebaud, for 'Zero Hour' – who are necessarily absent because of the election	The CAN Bill with UK election looming and also introducing Great Big Green Week starting June 8	5
Parveen Kumar, Fiona Godlee, Ambassadors for the UK Health Alliance on Climate Change	What Europe's biggest employer, the NHS, its staff (and patients, ie everyone) in the health sector can do re the climate emergency	5
Laurel Spooner Vasectomy expert (10,000 cases) and trainer (100 + doctors)	Why it is crucial to Include men in reproductive health & environment issues: vasectomy+ World Vasectomy Day being totally relevant to that	5
John Guillebaud	Qs and Wrap-up: we must learn to "love/have concern for our future neighbour ". [Must exit C Cottage by 1830. Kew Gardens close at 1900]	5+